Once there was a beautiful princess called  Snow White.

Her  mother was dead, and her father had married again.

The new  queen was very vain.

She had a magic  mirror and every day she asked it: "Who is the fairest of them all?" And the  mirror would reply:

"You, O  Queen." But one day,

mirror

replied:

"Snow White."

So the

queen

ordered the

hunter

to take

into

forest

and kill her. But he

felt sorry for

and

let her go. She ran through the forest,

until she came to a little house.

Inside there were

seven little

beds.

She lay

on

bed

and fell asleep.

Later, seven  dwarfs returned home. They were surprised to find  Snow White in their house! They agreed to let her stay with them. Back at the palace, the queen asked her  mirror: "Who is the fairest of them all?" Again the mirror answered:  "Snow White."

The  queen was furious!

She went to the dwarfs'  house disguised as an old  woman. She offered  Snow White a poisoned apple. Snow White took a bite from the  apple and fell down, as if dead. The seven  dwarfs found Snow White on  the ground. They thought  she was dead  and put her in a glass  coffin.

One day, a  prince came riding through the forest and saw  Snow White.

He fell in love with her.

"Bring her to my  castle," begged the  Prince. As his servants lifted the  coffin, the poisoned  apple fell out of  Snow White's mouth.  Snow White came to life again!
